Dietary treatment in Dutch children with PKU: an inventory of associated social restrictions and eating problems.

Authors: S. Haitjema¹, C.M.A. Lubout¹*, D. Abeln², M. de Bruijn-van der Veen³, A. MacDonald⁴, B.H.R. Wolffenbuttel⁵, F.J. van Spronsen¹

¹Department of Paediatrics, Centre for Metabolic Diseases, Beatrix Children’s Hospital, University Medical Center Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands
²President of the Dutch-PKU Association, The Netherlands
³Department of Psychology, University Medical Center Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands
⁴Department of Dietetics, Birmingham Children’s Hospital, Birmingham, United Kingdom
⁵Department of Endocrinology and Metabolic Diseases, University Medical Center Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands
*Corresponding author

Correspondence
Charlotte M. A. Lubout, University Medical Center Groningen - Section of Metabolic Diseases, Beatrix Children’s Hospital, Hanzeplein 1, 9700 RB Groningen, The Netherlands. Email: c.m.a.lubout@umcg.nl